

National and International coverage with over 2,000 court reporters located throughout the United States.

"Our court reporting solutions are designed to provide you with the specialists and resources needed in the ever-evolving legal climate."

Pete Giammanco - West Division President & Director of Court Reporting

U.S. Legal Support's highly skilled and dedicated court reporters are specialized in all aspects of litigation and technology. We rigorously screen our reporters to ensure all of our services are delivered with accuracy, speed, professionalism and advanced technological support worldwide.

Court Reporting Services

- More than 2,000 highly qualified court reporters with specialized areas of expertise (IP, securities, environmental, construction, multi-party/complex, medical)
- Complete Client Portal with 24/7 access to your online calendar, scheduling, transcripts, exhibits, invoices, and more
 - Realtime reporting including rough draft and interactive connection
 - Realtime web streaming
 - Complimentary in-house deposition suites
 - Videography services
 - Audio-to-text transcription services
 - Interpreters

Deposition and Case Management

Our team of case managers provide dedicated and comprehensive support for your large and complex matters.

Your dedicated case manager will coordinate and assist with all aspects of your litigation needs.

Legal Videography

U.S. Legal Support has full state-of-the-art video production departments to handle all of your video needs. Our synchronized video/transcript format allows for easy search, clip creation, and more. With our vast experience in legal videography, we can support you in preparing for a hearing, mediation, arbitration or trial.

Document Depositories and Document Management

We understand how critical it is that you can trust a company to professionally and confidentially handle your documents. Our highly qualified and dedicated team will assist you every step of the way. We offer physical and online depositories. Our online depository software allows you to search, highlight, print and access your documents from anywhere in the world.

For additional information on these and other court reporting services visit www.uslegalsupport.com or contact your local representative.

uslegalsupport.com

National Presence. Local Expertise.