REMOTE DEPOSITIONS ARE NO LONGER THE “NEW NORMAL.”
THEY’RE THE NEW STANDARD.

Remote depositions weren’t new to U.S. Legal Support in 2020. Prior to the pandemic, we scheduled more than 10,000 remote events each year on our secure remote deposition platform. Fast forward a few years and remote formats for depositions, hearings, trials, and other proceedings are now the new normal, and we schedule 160,000+ remote events annually.

What our clients say:

“I was dubious about video depositions, but I took two key defense witnesses this week through U.S. Legal Support’s system and it worked great. I was able to drag and drop PDF documents right through the system in realtime – it was just like handing the documents to the witness across a table in my conference room. All the participants, including the reporter and videographer, were in their homes. Nevertheless, I was able to get the testimony I wanted.”
